Aussie Tandem Lifts National Tennis Crown

Brookline, Mass.—(AP)—The U. S. Davis Cup team's chances of making its fourth consecutive successful defense against the challenging Australians appeared endangered after Jack Bromwich and Frank Sedgman defeated Gardnar Mulloy of Miami and Bill Talbert of New York, 7-5, 8-6, 3-6, 6-1, for the National Doubles tennis titles yesterday at Longwood.

The women's titles were won in easy fashion, for the ninth straight year, by Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Osborne duPont of Wilmington, Del., 6-2, 6-2, from Doris Hart of Miami and Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio.

Before playing for the titles, Bromwich and Sedgman completed Saturday's rain-interrupted semifinal with countryman Ken McGregor and Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, for a 6-4, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4 victory.

Against Mulloy and Talbert, titlists four times since 1942, the Australians employed forcing tactics that enabled them to command the net at most stages.

For the most part, they were content to keep the ball in play and force opposition errors.

Only in the third set were the American Davis Cup veterans able to hit their normal stride but they wilted badly and were widely outplayed during the final set.

Mulloy and Talbert depended upon smashing most of the time. Their overhead smashes enabled them to total 39 placements against the Australians' 32. But the Americans piled up 86 errors, including 58 smashes into the net, against a total of 74 miscues for the visitors from "far under."

Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Buck of Boston defended her women's veterans' singles titles by beating Mrs. Carl Pickhardt of Cambridge, Mass., 6-3, 6-3.

Then Mrs. Buck teamed with Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman, Brookline's famed "mother of tennis," and they retained their doubles honors with a 9-7, 6-0 victory over Mrs. Pickhardt and Virginia Ellis, also of Cambridge.

It was Mrs. Wightman's 42nd national championship victory indoors and out since 1909.

National Tennis Tourney Accepts 1st Negro Entry

FORREST HILLS — (AP) — The entry of Althea Gibson of New York was accepted yesterday for the National Tennis Championships, making her the first Negro to play in the grass court fixture.

The tournament acceptance committee of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association announced Miss Gibson as one of 52 women who will begin competition at the West Side Tennis Club next Monday.

Negroes have played in national clay court and indoor tournaments but never before in the grass court championships.

Miss Gibson, 22, was runnerup to Nancy Chaffer of Ventura, Calif., this year in the national indoor tournament. She also won the Eastern indoor title and played in both the national clay court and Eastern grass court championships.

Genesee to Meet Buffalo Golfers

The golfing teams of Genesee Valley Park and South Park of Buffalo will play the second half of a home-and-home match here on Sunday, Sept. 17.

The Rochester team defeated the Windy City outfit, 35½ to 24½, last Sunday at Buffalo.

Rochester's Harold Christ copped laurels for the day by shooting a 69, one under par. Mike Zambito and Tom Cagnzaao, also of the Rochester team, hit 70 and 71, respectively. Maynard May was low for the host team, getting a 70.

Cricketers to Drill, Meet Tomorrow

The Rochester Cricket Club will hold a practice session and meeting at Genesee Valley Park tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock. RCC will host Toronto Ramblers Sunday and the Ontario Hospital Cricket Club, London, Ont., Sunday and Monday, Sept. 3 and 4.

ELKS BOWLERS TO MEET

Captains of the Elks Friday Night Bowling League will meet at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the Elks Club.

Barrows' Yacht Maybe Unofficially in Front As Race Nears Finish

By CLIFF CARPENTER

Slamming into a rolling sea, lee rails buried as they heeled to a smart southwesterly breeze, four of the sharpest racing-cruising yachts in the 335-mile Rochester Race were within sight of Toronto harbor early last night.

With the rest of the 13-boat fleet scattered over more than 50 miles of lake water behind them, chances were that the winner of the world's longest fresh water handicap grind would be one of the leading four; and the most dramatic possibility of all was that it could be William P. (Bill) Barrows, last year's victor, flying the colors of the sponsoring Rochester Yacht Club.

A Gannett Newspapers plane, with Bill Cruickshank at the controls, checked the course late yesterday afternoon, the passengers including Don Phelps, Rochester Race chairman; Bud Gorsline, LYRA race chief, and the writer.

Mitena Leads

About 25 miles East of Toronto and 5 miles offshore, the plane picked up the 4-boat parade, with Supreme Court Justice John Van Voorhis' skyscraping 72-foot Mitena in the lead. But the huge RYC scratch boat, rated the fastest in the fleet, and sailing with virtually no handicap, appeared to have lost her crack at the trophy, for the pursuers were too close.

Astern of the Mitena at almost perfect intervals of 3-4 miles came Venture 3rd, George Ford's brilliant new yawl from Rochester Yacht Club; then the Maybe, Bill Barrows' equally new yawl, untested up to this race but handled by a master, and finally the Tigress, a 45-footer from Mentor Harbor Y. C. on Lake Erie, skippered by Frank White with an all-Cleveland crew, and riding a proud racing record including a third in her class in the Bermuda Race.

The plane-borne spotters, on a hasty and unofficial calculation of handicaps, distances and times, figured Barrows was holding about a 25-minute advantage over the Tigress, which in turn nursed a 30-minute lead over Venture.

Tackle Last Leg

Presumably, the four rounded the Toronto buoy within 3 hours or so of the sighting and tackled the last leg of the vast triangle, 96 miles back to Rochester.

If Barrows, the greatest RYC cup winner of them all, should repeat; or if the admittedly brilliant Ford should win, it would be as strange a duel as Great Lakes yachting has ever seen, for both men are racing against the dubious frowns of their physicians, Barrows following a hospital siege and Ford with a badly smashed thumb and his arm in a sling.

As was expected, leaders tumbled and the positions of the boats were shuffled drastically after the fleet rounded Stony Island near the mouth of the St. Lawrence late Sunday night and early Monday morning, and began the 158-mile drive to Toronto. For a whacking 15-20 mile blow had bowled the heavy weather boats into favorable positions up to the Stony buoy. At that point, with the handicaps figured, Venture was leading, followed by the Toronto schooner, Heron; the Concubine, skippered by RYC commodore Jeff Dale; Lady Linden, Arthur Hughes, RYC; Flying Cloud, Fred Temple's giant Toledo sloop, Maybe; Ben Bow, fast Lake Michigan staysail schooner; Lorelei, Herb Wahl, RYC, Tigress; White Wings, Toronto; Seneca 3rd, Eric Moore, RYC; Tiburon, Sandusky, Ohio and Mitena.

Decide to Gamble

Unable to match the pace-setters on the close-hauled leg toward Toronto, some of the trailing boats apparently decided to gamble. White Wings, Bill Grant's sloop from the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, was spotted along with two other yachts far over on the south shore of the lake, and with little wind, perhaps 40 miles behind the leaders.

Granted no let-down in the breeze, the leading foursome should hit the finish line off the Port of Rochester by 5 or 6 a. m. today. And by noon or soon after, the winner should be known.

Fight Results

New York—(AP)—Italy's Armando Amanini, 159¼, knocked out Al Hersh, 156½, of New York last night in 1:32 of the second round of a scheduled eight-round fight feature at Ridgewood Grove.

Brooklyn—(AP)—Artie Diamond, 153¾, of New York won a unanimous eight-round decision over Tommy Ciarlo, 146½, of Waterbury, Conn., last night at the Coney Island Velodrome.

Gulf Nine Downs Cities Service, 9-2, For Kiwanis Title

Gulf defeated Cities Service, 9-2, last night under the lights at Edgerton Park to win the Kiwanis Grasshopper Baseball League playoff trophy.

It was an easy victory for the Gulf club which led all the way. Both pitchers hurled creditable ball, but four errors by CS were costly.

World Series to Bring Almost $1,000,000 in Video, Radio Contracts

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Major League baseball and its player pension fund will be enriched by almost a million dollars by the telecast and radio broadcast of the 1950 World Series.

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler announced yesterday that the Gillette Safety Razor Co. and the Mutual Broadcasting Co. had been granted exclusive radio and television rights for the 1950 series. The television contract will bring baseball $800,000 and the radio broadcast will bring in an additional $175,000.

GOOD LUCK! Eddy Stam, left, Cities Service, and Joe Santarose, Gulf, pitchers and captains of their respective teams, wish each other good luck prior to the game last night under Edgerton Park lights. Gulfs won Kiwanis Baseball League title.

Royals Sign Coleman For 1950-51 Campaign

It's definite now. Jack Coleman, an outstanding rookie in the National Basketball Association last season, will return to the Royals.

Six-foot, 7-inch Coleman, a workhorse during a large part of the '49-'50 campaign when illness sidelined Arnie Risen, has signed, Les Harrison, owner-coach of the city pro five, announced last night. Harrison after learning that a rival basketball league team had attempted to obtain Jack's services, journeyed to Burgin, Ky., over the weekend and discussed terms with the former Louisville University star.

In his first season of the paid-to-play game, Coleman, an excellent rebounder, scored 8.7 points per game and turned in a field goal percentage of .377.

Captain of the Louisville collegiate five in the 1948-49 season, Jack led the state of Kentucky scorers in his junior and senior years. His school career was interrupted by a Navy call. He served during World War 2 in the Pacific area aboard an aircraft carrier.

Harrison last night reported his charge has kept in tip-top physical condition during the Summer.

Mascaris, Bushnells Advance To Double Elimination Bracket

Two teams, the Mascaris and the Bushnell Basins, moved into the final eight in the double elimination bracket of the Metropolitan Rochester Softball Tournament as they defeated the DPI, 12-1, and the Air Force, 10-1, respectively at Kodak Park last night.

In the best-of-three series, the Lills Girls toppled the Daw Girls, 4-0, on a three-hitter by Lorraine Burke.

The Mascaris, led by Lou Corona's home run in the third with two mates on board, had fine pitching by Tony Nicola. The pitching prize of the evening was a no-hitter by Charley Loock of Bushnell. He struck out 10. Air Force gained its run on a combination of a walk, a wild pitch and two fielder's choices. Scores:

Mascari's	2 0 4 0 6 0 0—12 14 0
D. P. I.	0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1 3 2

Upset Win Taken By Majestic Miss

Special to The Democrat and Chronicle

Batavia—Majestic Miss, owned by Carlton Goslin of Harrington, Del., captured the featured Class B pace at Batavia Downs last night upsetting Clever Direct, the 8-5 favorite.

Driven by Wayd Cotter, Majestic Miss moved from second at the quarter to take the lead at the half. She remained on top the rest of the way fighting off Clever Direct and Ora Frisco in the battle to the wire to win by a length.

Clever direct saved second in a photo with Ora Frisco.

The winner paid $13.70 and covered the mile in 2:09 2/5.

A crowd of 3,929 was on hand. The handle was $124,178.

Longshot Phyllis Worthy, owned by Mark Kyler of Springville, registered her first victory of the year when she won the second race, a Class I Trot.

The $20.40-for-$2 betting chance took it from Willoughby Kuno in a photo finish. The first half of the double was Danna Up who grabbed a length victory over the refugee in the Class G Trot. Danna Up paid $13.50. The Daily Double was $158.50.

NOTES — Jack Mehlenbacher arrived at the Downs yesterday with his stable of eight, including the speedy pacer, Her Royal Highness. . . . Levi Harner, the all-time leading driver at Batavia Downs, who has been sidelined with injuries, is expected to be back in action some time this week.

George Spenton's Seneca Falls Stable was in the spotlight when Wallace Hanover, paying $23.00, captured the third race, a classified trot.

Bill Harvey took over the driving lead with two seconds in the first and second races last night. . . . He replaces Johnny Chapman, who has led since the meeting opened. . . . In the fourth race Nicodemus broke and threw his driver, Ray Bean. . . . Mary Van, driven by Harry Field, tangled with Nicodemus, and the wheel on her sulky was broken. . . . Neither driver was injured. . . . Winner of the race, a Class E pace, was favored Money Maker. . . . East Up, driven by Staff Hayes of Rochester, was third for the third straight time.

Neither Ralph Verhurst of Victor nor Gordon Verhurst of Rochester, owners of Proximity, was available last night for comment on the proposed match between the queen of the trotters and Good Time, top pacer, at Yonkers. It has been 25 years since an outstanding trotter-pacer duel was held . . . Proximity's most recent victory was scored in the Lake Success $5,000 free-for-all trot at Roosevelt Raceway last Friday night. The mare won the first $10,000 race at Batavia, scoring last year as the best in the summaries. Prox won the mile trip after being nosed out by Chris Spencer over the longer route. Chris Spencer finished third in the mile.

Proximity to Race at Downs; Duel With Cane Pacer Sought

Proximity, the greatest trotting mare of this generation and the top money-winning horse of all times, was spotlighted in the harness racing news last night.

Shortly after Batavia Downs officials announced that the Rochester and Victor-owned horse will compete in the $10,000 Invitational Trot at the half-mile track on Friday, Sept. 15, William H. Cane offered his great pacer, Good Time against Proximity in a $35,000 match race. Cane, director of the Hambletonian, suggested the race be staged Friday, Oct. 29, at Yonkers Raceway.

Good Time is leading money winners among the pacers with about $138,000 in purses. The eight-year-old mare, Proximity, has earned $214,879.67.
